Ministry Defined

The Graduate Theological Foundation defines ministry as “service to the improvement and nurture of society and the world community.” Due to the blurred lines between the sacred and secular in contemporary society, ministry professionals are continually crafting their role and the nature of their work, a process which takes into account both personal values-based service and public responsibility. Practitioners involved in ministry are self-reflectively aware of the nurturing quality of that activity, and are found in such fields as education, pastoral care and counseling, chaplaincy, mediation, psychology, health care and counseling, sacred music, religious education and other cognate fields.

Description

The degree of Doctor of Ministry has become a nationally accepted terminal professional degree for ministry. The uniqueness of the D.Min. program offered by the Graduate Theological Foundation is found in its exclusive orientation toward ministry as a pastoral ecumenical commitment, through specialized study pursued through the GTF or at other approved education venues selected by degree candidates. The GTF is offering an educational experience designed specifically to address the needs of ministry in an environment which is supportive and nurturing, but appropriately independent of any one ecclesial body.

Time Frame and Tuition

This degree is a 36 credit program that may be completed in no less than eighteen months and no more than four years.

Doctor of Psychology (Psy.D.)

Description

Increasingly in the professional practice of counseling, the Doctor of Psychology (Psy.D.) is becoming the credential of preference. This emerging emphasis has come about owing to the value and importance of praxis or clinical practical experience placed upon the participant within the degree program. Rather than being a research oriented degree such as the Ph.D. which is commonly thought of as the required teaching credential, the Psy.D. places fundamental emphasis upon skills training and practical clinical experience within the counseling setting. The Graduate Theological Foundation enters this field owing to the large number of clergy and ministry professionals who have come to seek the Psy.D. because they prefer an educational environment more responsive to their faith awareness needs than is typically exemplified in the secular professional schools of psychology and state university graduate departments.

The Psy.D. candidate at the GTF will encounter a two-fold emphasis: the academic study of psychology and its clinical practical application to the counseling situation, and the role of the ministry professional as representative of the faith community within the counseling setting. By combining academic training and pastoral awareness, the GTF's Psy.D. program offers a unique opportunity for ministry professionals. Individuals must comply with the licensure and/or board certification requirements of the state in which they intend to be engaged in professional counseling.

Psy.D. in Clinical Pastoral Psychotherapy

In this clinically-based program, the participant will encounter a two-fold emphasis, namely, (1) an unrelenting commitment to the academic study of clinical pastoral psychotherapy as embodied particularly in eight classical schools of psychotherapy, and (2) the clinical pastoral application to the counseling situation. By combining academic training and pastoral awareness, this program offers a unique opportunity for ministry professionals to integrate psychotherapeutic modes of analysis with clinical application in individual and family counseling.

This specialization requires the completion of a set curriculum consisting of nine E-Tutorial courses, Research Methodology, and a residency requirement of a five day on-site Clinical Skills Assessment Practicum (CSAP) followed by a final paper. See the Clinical Pastoral Psychotherapy page on the website for details.

Doctor of Sacred Music (D.S.M.)

Description

The Doctor of Sacred Music is a second level professional degree for persons engaged in parish music ministries as a cantor, director or minister of music, pastoral musician, pastor of worship, organist, etc., or in other contexts in which the individual serves in a sacred music capacity, such as a music missionary. Persons who possess a master's degree in church, liturgical or sacred music, or who have earned a master's degree in another area of music within which sacred music study was undertaken, are welcome to apply.

The D.S.M. is designed to enable the candidate to develop a sequence of four units which will focus on an area of sacred music previously lacking in the candidate's training, or focus on taking an area of musical expertise to a higher level. Students may specialize in a performance area, musical composition, research, parish music administration, or other in-ministry concerns. Study for the units may be acquired by attending a traditional graduate level course, by directed study, or through a combination of short-term courses, seminars, workshops, master classes, or private instruction through the GTF or at other approved educational institutions of the candidate's choice. Depending on the nature of the plan of studies, the D.S.M. Project may take the form of a recital or a lecture-recital, a choral/instrumental performance, the writing of a traditional thesis, the composition and performance of an original work or set of works, or the development of an in-ministry activity based on the student's particular area of interest and context need.

Master of Tribunal Studies (M.Tr.S.) online

Description

This degree is designed for already practicing volunteer or credentialed chancery and tribunal personnel (lay, religious, ordained, or civil lawyers) who wish to foster self-improvement and motivation in the pursuit of canonical education as an end in itself or in preparation for doctoral studies. With its specialized focus on tribunal agenda found in the Code of Canon Law and the practice of the Roman Rota, the M.Tr.S. is ideally suited to the formation and practice of the Assessor (canon 1424), the Auditor (canon 1428), the Advocate (canons 1483,1490), the Notary (canons 483,1567,1568), and other Formal Trial officials, although this training is never a promise of employment. Graduate-level work involves an understanding of doctrine and the formation of skills needed for the various tribunal departments, and preparation for the Master of Tribunal Studies thesis.

(Note: Because the M.Tr.S. requires a thesis rather than a project, it is considered an academic rather than a professional degree.)

Time Frame and Tuition

This degree is a 30 credit program that may be completed in no less than eighteen months and no more than four years.

Total Program Cost amounts include all required courses.

Total Program Cost $12,000

Degree candidates are bound by the regulations of the Student Handbook of the year in which they are accepted into their program of study. Tuition fees will not change during a student's course of study, providing the student submits payments and papers on schedule and completes the degree program within the prescribed time. If the student does not conform to scheduled payment and/or paper submission deadlines, the student's file will be deactivated. Upon reactivation, the student will be responsible for the tuition and degree requirements which are current at the time of reactivation.

1/3 of total fees paid within one year of the date of acceptance

1/3 of total fees paid by March 1st of the year of graduation

Payment Plan Option

Students who are unable to make tuition payments in three installments may request to be placed on a payment plan. The payment plan option allows the student to make small monthly or quarterly tuition payments for the duration of the degree program. There is no interest charged on payment plans. If a student requests a mailed invoice as a reminder to make payment, there is a ten dollar fee per invoice.

Admission Requirements

1. Bachelor's degree or equivalent validated by a transcript
2. Five years of professional experience, salaried or volunteer, in tribunal-related work for the diocese verified by a chancery letter

3. Completion of the application process

Program Requirements

1. Completion of six Units of Study (18 graduate credits). Four Units of Study must be taken from the Tribunal Studies Curriculum, plus the Research Methodology course, and one elective from either the Theology, Biblical Studies or the Pastoral Care and Counseling Psychology E-Tutorial Roster.
2. Participation in the five-day residential Case-Based Tribunal Studies Practicum (6 graduate credits)
3. Completion of a 30,000 to 35,000 word thesis written under supervision by a faculty member of the GTF (6 graduate credits)

Tribunal Studies Practicum

The Practicum is based on case studies and is a five-day residential experience. The student will participate individually or in a small group (five to ten students) in a practicum with a Tribunal Studies faculty member. The venue is Chicago and recommendations for accommodations are provided. There is no fee for this Practicum but the student is responsible for room and board costs. Hosted by Tribunal Studies faculty, the dates are arranged for the convenience of both students and faculty.

Selection of Faculty Thesis Supervisor and Nomination Procedure

Students must select a faculty member a member of the GTF faculty in canon law in the Tribunal Studies Program to serve as Thesis Supervisor. This enables the student to receive helpful and pragmatic evaluative feedback from a member of the faculty in the developmental process of producing the master's thesis. The role of the Thesis Supervisor is responsive and suggestive. The faculty person is encouraged to limit feedback to pragmatically helpful hints and suggestions and not to attempt any censorship of the thesis. The exercise of discretion with respect to time demands is very important for both the student and faculty member. The Thesis Supervisor must give final approval of the student's work by submitting the Thesis Supervisor Report Form.

- The student must select one of the GTF Canon Law faculty members in the Tribunal Studies Program, i.e., Father David Mulvihill or Father John Mulvihill. Their faculty profiles are posted on the website under Faculty.
- Students select one of these two faculty members of the GTF to serve as Thesis Supervisor. The student completes the online Thesis Supervisor Nomination Form 106 (Forms).
- Academic Affairs informs the student and faculty member of relationship approval and contact information is provided.

Master's Thesis

After completing all coursework for the Master of Tribunal Studies

(M.Tr.S.), a candidate undertakes the writing of a master's thesis of 30,000-35,000 words in the field of canon law which is clearly a work of applied scholarship making a contribution to tribunal studies. The master's thesis must include a table of contents and bibliography of a minimum 20 sources, with annotations for the 10-12 key sources. The thesis must be written in 12 point Times New Roman (or comparable) font, double-spaced and with the appropriate table of contents and bibliography.

The thesis is shaped as a written work of case-based applied research with a demonstrated familiarity with the appropriate scholarly and professional literature. It should be noted that the written form of the thesis is to be in the style of an actual scholarly paper which may be considered suitable for publication. When the thesis in its final form has been reviewed and approved by the student's Thesis Supervisor, it must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar for final review.

Please refer to the website for a complete degree description.

Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)

Coursework completed at Oxford

Description

In keeping with the European tradition of advanced degrees being earned on the basis of original research in a specialized field of study that is written and defended before a panel of scholarly experts, the GTF has for a number of years provided a means whereby doctoral-level students can attend courses at Oxford for degree credit through the GTF. All residency is completed at the Oxford University's Oxford Theology Summer School and the thesis is defended before the GTF faculty. Upon successful defense of the thesis, the degree is awarded by the Graduate Theological Foundation. The degree transcript reflects the courses taken at the Oxford University's Oxford Theology Summer School.

Time Frame and Tuition

This degree is a 45 credit program that may be completed in no less than two years and no more than seven years.

Total Program Cost $13,000

Degree candidates are bound by the regulations of the Student Handbook of the year in which they are accepted into their program of study. Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)

Students in the Ph.D. degree program may choose from a variety of degree concentrations or may request to pursue a concentration relevant to their specific interests. Certain Ph.D. concentrations require the completion of a specific curriculum. (Please see the website, and below, for details.)

Description

The degree of Doctor of Philosophy is the universally accepted terminal academic degree. The degree taken through the GTF allows students to specialize in several fields, including Islam, Judaism, psychology, biblical studies, historical studies, and theological studies. The GTF's program seeks to address concerns in the context of overarching perspectives. Specialties are removed from potential isolation and located in the large-scale dynamics of religious traditions and their ministries. Candidates for GTF degree thus seek a two-fold academic identification: as specialists in various fields and as those who undertake to relate such fields to the multiple dimensions of religion, religious experience, and religious traditions.

This degree is a 36-42 credit program that may be completed in no less than two years and no more than seven years.

Tuition

Total Program Cost amounts include all required courses if taken through the GTF. The acceptance of transfer credit will decrease total program cost.

Total Program Cost $18,100

Note: Total program cost varies based on certain degree concentrations. For total program cost for the Clinical Pastoral Psychotherapy concentration, the Pastoral Logotherapy concentration, and the Islamic Studies concentration, please see those sections of this handbook. The Foundation House Ph.D. and the A.B.D. Doctor of Philosophy Degree Completion Program are separate degrees, not degree concentrations.

Degree candidates are bound by the regulations of the Student Handbook of the year in which they are accepted into their program of study. Tuition fees will not change during a student's course of study, providing the student submits payments and papers on schedule and completes the degree program within the prescribed time. If the student does not conform to scheduled payment and/or paper submission deadlines, the student's file will be deactivated. Upon reactivation, the student will be responsible for the tuition and degree requirements which are current at the time of reactivation.

Transfer Credit

Any student wishing to have previously completed academic work evaluated for possible transfer credit or wishing to complete coursework through a venue other than the Graduate Theological Foundation for use as transfer credit toward a degree, must contact the Office of the Registrar for approval. Students may use transfer credit to fulfill a maximum 50% of their Unit of Study requirements for this degree. Accepted transfer credit has the potential to decrease the total tuition paid by the student. Requests for acceptance of transfer credit are reviewed on a case by case basis.

Doctor of Philosophy

(Ph.D.)

Clinical Pastoral Psychotherapy

This is a 42 credit program.

This Ph.D. specialization is designed for those in various forms of counseling ministries who wish to concentrate upon the classical schools of psychotherapy with special attention to the theoretical constructs and therapeutic modalities developed by Freud, Adler, Jung, Frankl, Maslow, Erikson, Rogers, and Sullivan. Whether within the parish context, a private practice, or an instructional setting, Clinical Pastoral Psychotherapy will provide the ministry practitioner with insights and skills developed through a systematic study of these eight classical schools of psychotherapy. Clinical Pastoral Psychotherapy is the study and treatment of dysfunctions in interpersonal relationships within the context of a spiritual worldview and ethos which provides a values-based framework for analysis and therapy.

Total Program Cost $18,900

Course Requirements (E-Tutorials)

The student must take all nine of the E-Tutorials covering the classical schools of psychotherapy as well as the Research Methodology course. These courses should be taken in the following sequence.

1. Classical Schools of Psychotherapy

2. Sigmund Freud and Psychoanalysis
3. Alfred Adler and Individual Psychology
4. Carl Jung and Analytical Psychology
5. Viktor Frankl and Logotherapy
6. Abraham Maslow and Humanistic Psychology
7. Erik Erikson and Developmental Psychology
8. Carl Rogers and Person-Centered Psychotherapy
9. Harry Stack Sullivan and Interpersonal Psychoanalysis
10. Research Methodology

The degree is completed by writing and defending a research-based thesis of 45,000 to 60,000 words before the GTF Faculty defense panel. A special feature of this Ph.D. in Clinical Pastoral Psychotherapy is the requirement that prior to the defense of the doctoral thesis the student must attend either the five-day Clinical Skills and Assessment Practicum at the GTF or one of the residential Institutes hosted by the GTF.

Individuals must comply with the licensure and/or board certification requirements of the state in which they intend to be engaged in professional counseling, as nomenclature is controlled by State Boards related to the various fields of counseling practice. Visit the State Professional Counselor Licensure Boards and the State Licensure for Pastoral Counselors webpages on the GTF website for licensure details. Students who are seeking to elevate their status within the profession rather than seeking to obtain licensure or certification will benefit from pursuing the Ph.D. in Clinical Pastoral Psychotherapy.

This program is open to those who have been actively engaged in some form of professional ministry (parish, social service, community outreach, chaplaincy, etc.) for at least five years and who meet the Admission Requirements listed for this degree. The degree is offered exclusively to the already credentialed ministry professional and is in no sense designed for those seeking to enter the field of counseling. Professional counseling and ministry credentials are viewed as prerequisites to entering this course of study with the GTF.

Please refer to the website for a complete degree description.

Doctor of Philosophy
(Ph.D.)
Pastoral Logotherapy

This is a 42 credit program.

This concentration is offered through the Graduate Center for Pastoral Logotherapy. For further information please see the section on the Graduate Center for Pastoral Logotherapy.

Doctor of Philosophy

(Ph.D.)

Islamic Studies

The Doctor of Philosophy in Islamic Studies is designed for those in ministry who are engaged in advanced study and research in the academic field of Islamic studies as this reflects the dynamics of analysis, theory and application of the various dimensions of the practice of faith in the Muslim world. The student is required to have a fully functioning use of the Arabic language and must be involved in some form of educational ministry within the faith community of Islam. The GTF particularly encourages the use of Oxford as a mechanism to involve the student in the study of Islam within that scholarly community. In addition to the GTF's special relationship with the Islamic Society of North America, a formal arrangement has been made with the Oxford Centre for Islamic Studies which provides the GTF's Muslim doctoral students with the opportunity to take advantage of the Centre's hospitality during their time of study in Oxford. This arrangement provides an opportunity for Muslim students of the GTF to utilize the research library, the place of worship, and a community of fellowship while in England. GTF students in Islamic Studies are welcomed to participate in the Life of the Oxford Centre of Islamic Studies in worship, fellowship, and study.

This program is curriculum-specific and provides an opportunity for the student to work under the direct oversight of Dr. Omar Shahin, Director of Islamic Studies and Professor of Islamic Law at the GTF. It requires Arabic language proficiency. This track requires the completion of eight courses from the specialized

online

Description

The Doctor of Tribunal Studies is designed for chancery and tribunal personnel who are engaged in advanced study and research in the academic field of canonical studies as reflected in the dynamics of analysis, theory, and application of various dimensions of tribunal doctrine and practice as mandated by the Second Vatican Council, the Code of Canon Law, current papal teaching, and Roman practice. The program involves graduate Units of Study designed to develop overarching perspectives on significant areas of theology and canon law, further graduate casework in the candidate's specialized interest, a research thesis of creative scholarship, and an oral defense demonstrating professional competence in tribunal studies.

(Note: Because the D.Tr.S. requires a thesis rather than a project, it is considered an academic rather than a professional degree.)

Time Frame and Tuition

This degree is a 42 credit program that may be completed in no less than eighteen months and no more than four years.

Program Cost $18,900

Degree candidates are bound by the regulations of the Student Handbook of the year in which they are accepted into their program of study. Tuition fees will not change during a student's course of study, providing the student submits payments and papers on schedule and completes the degree program within the prescribed time. If the student does not conform to scheduled payment and/or paper submission deadlines, the student's file will be deactivated. Upon reactivation, the student will be responsible for the tuition and degree requirements which are current at the time of reactivation.

Tuition payment schedule

1/3 of total fees paid within 30 days of acceptance

1/3 of total fees paid within one year of the date of acceptance

1/3 of total fees paid by March 1 of the year of graduation

Payment Plan Option

Students who are unable to make tuition payments in three installments may request to be placed on a payment plan. The payment plan option allows the student to make small monthly or quarterly tuition payments for the duration of the degree program. There is no interest charged on payment plans. If a student requests a mailed invoice as a reminder to make payment, there is a ten dollar fee per invoice.

Admission Requirements

1. Bachelor's degree and the M.Tr.S. degree or J.C.L. validated by a transcript. Civil lawyers holding the J.D. and lay persons holding a Masters in theology are exempt from holding the M.Tr.S.

2. Five years of professional experience, salaried or volunteer, in tribunal-related work for the diocese verified by a chancery letter
3. Completion of the application process

Program Requirements

1. Completion of ten Units of Study (30 graduate credits). Six Units of Study must be taken from the Tribunal Studies Curriculum and three electives from either the Theology, Biblical Studies or the Pastoral Care and Counseling Psychology E-Tutorial Roster, and the Research Methodology course
2. Participation in the five-day residential Case-Based Tribunal Studies Practicum (6 graduate credits)
3. Completion of a 40,000 to 45,000 word thesis written under supervision by a faculty member of the GTF (6 graduate credits)

Tribunal Studies Practicum

The Practicum is based on case studies and is a five-day residential experience. The student will participate with five to ten other students (when enrollment exists) or the student will engage one-on-one with a Tribunal Studies faculty person in a tutorial format for the five days. The venue is in Chicago and recommendations for accommodations are provided. There is no fee for this Practicum but the student is responsible for room and board costs. Hosted by Tribunal Studies faculty, the dates are arranged for the convenience of both students and faculty.

Language Requirement

In instances where the doctoral thesis topic requires competency in one or more languages (e.g., Latin) as determined by the Thesis Supervisor, the student must produce either a transcript of two academic semesters of language courses or some other means of demonstrated competency to the satisfaction of the Thesis Supervisor and the Office of Academic Affairs.

Thesis Proposal

The student will submit a thesis proposal to the GTF. This will be the first working document generated from the relationship between the student and the Thesis Supervisor. The proposal will include a brief description of the proposed thesis, a working title and a brief bibliography.

Thesis

After completing all coursework for the Doctor of Tribunal Studies (D.Tr.S.), a candidate undertakes the writing of a doctoral thesis of 40,000-45,000 words in the field of canon law which is clearly a work of applied scholarship making a contribution to tribunal studies. The thesis must be written in 12 point Times New Roman (or comparable) font, double-spaced and with the appropriate table of contents and bibliography.

The thesis is shaped as a written work of case-based applied research with a demonstrated familiarity with the appropriate scholarly and professional literature. It should be noted that the written form of the thesis is to be in the style of an actual scholarly paper suitable for publication.

When the thesis in its final form has been reviewed and approved by the student's Thesis Supervisor, it must be submitted to the GTF for final review. The thesis, abstract, cover sheet and biographical statement must be submitted by email to the Office of the Registrar a minimum of three months prior to the intended date of oral defense.

Thesis Style Statement

There are several internationally recognized dissertation styles acceptable in the academic community. In light of the fact that the GTF has a rather large international student body, the GTF has not adopted a single style form acceptable for thesis writing. The GTF will, rather, accept any of the internationally recognized styles, given that the student consistently employs the same style throughout the writing of the thesis. Those most commonly used but not required include Turabian, MLA, APA, as well as others known and recognized universally.

Thesis Supervision

When degrees first began to be awarded by universities in the twelfth century in Bologna, Paris, and Oxford, the doctor's degree was recognized as a universal authentication of scholarship. The doctorate was not earned by attending classes but by sustained residency and demonstrated scholarship. The credential was awarded by the faculty of the university on the basis of a thesis which was submitted by the candidate and followed by an oral defense of the document before the gathered academic community.

Times have changed but much of the doctoral process has endured. The Graduate Theological Foundation requires a demonstration of academic research considered by the faculty to be an original work of scholarship and a contribution to the field. After the doctoral candidate has completed residency and language requirements (if required), the development of the thesis is initiated under the direct supervision of the Thesis Supervisor.

The Thesis Supervisor, in this style of learning, is specifically mandated to work closely with the candidate in the development of the thesis topic and through its evolving refinements leading to the finished product.

Selection of Faculty Thesis Supervisor and Nomination Procedure

Students must select a member of the GTF faculty in canon law in the Tribunal Studies Program to serve as Thesis Supervisor. This enables the student to receive helpful and pragmatic evaluative feedback from a member of the faculty in the developmental process of producing the doctoral thesis. The role of the faculty Thesis Supervisor is responsive and suggestive. The faculty person is encouraged to limit feedback to pragmatically helpful hints and suggestions and not to attempt any censorship of the thesis. The exercise of discretion with respect to time demands is very important for both the student and faculty member. The faculty Thesis Supervisor must give final approval of the student's work by submitting the Thesis Supervisor Report Form.

- The student must select one of the GTF's Canon Law faculty members in the Tribunal Studies Program, i.e., Father David Mulvihill or Father John Mulvihill. Their faculty profiles are posted on the website under Faculty.

- Students select one of these two faculty members of the GTF to serve as Thesis Supervisor. The student completes the online Faculty Thesis Supervisor Nomination form.
- Academic Affairs informs the student and faculty member of relationship approval and contact information is provided.

Doctoral Oral Defense

The doctoral defense will be scheduled no sooner than 90 days and no longer than 180 days from the time that all academic and financial obligations have been met. You will be notified by the Office of the Registrar of your eligibility to schedule a defense after the following have been received by the Office of the Registrar:

- Thesis Proposal
- Thesis Cover Sheet
- Abstract and Biographical Statement
- Thesis Supervisor Report (this form is mailed directly to our offices by the Thesis Supervisor)
- One electronic copy of the thesis (PDF or MS Word format)

Doctoral Committee

Every student admitted into an academic doctoral program, either the Ph.D. or the Th. D., will be assigned a Doctoral Committee prior to the scheduling of the doctoral defense. The members of the committee are as follows

- Thesis Supervisor

- Two Faculty Readers
- Two Defense Panel members
- Defense Chair

These six individuals are not asked to agree with the observations or conclusions drawn by the doctoral candidate in the thesis, but the committee must finally concur that the thesis is worthy of scholarly recognition based on traditional standards of scholarship, research and presentation.

A.B.D. Doctor of Philosophy Degree Completion Program (Ph.D.)

Description

The GTF has developed an accelerated completion program designed specifically for those individuals who have reached the All But Dissertation (A.B.D.) level at a graduate school of an accredited seminary or university. All But Dissertation (A.B.D.) indicates incompleteness. According to statistical reports of the various state and government agencies monitoring higher education in the United States, there is an inordinately high percentage of individuals who fail to complete their Ph.D. work after having successfully sustained the doctoral qualifying examinations, completed language requirements, and fulfilled residency coursework. The phenomenon is particularly and disturbingly high in the cognate fields of theology and religious studies. The A.B.D. Doctor of Philosophy degree completion program of the GTF is an attempt to address this issue.

Time Frame and Tuition

The degree may be completed in no less than twelve months and no more than three years.

Total Program Cost $10,600

Degree candidates are bound by the regulations of the Student Handbook of the year in which they are accepted into their program of study. Tuition fees will not change during a student's course of study, providing the student submits payments and papers on schedule and completes the degree program within the prescribed time. If the student does not conform to scheduled payment and/or paper submission deadlines, the student's file will be deactivated. Upon reactivation, the student will be responsible for the tuition and degree requirements which are current at the time of reactivation.

Tuition payment schedule

The payment plan option allows the student to make small monthly or quarterly tuition payments for the duration of the degree program. There is no interest charged on payment plans. If a student requests a mailed invoice as a reminder to make payment, there is a ten dollar fee per invoice.

Admission Requirements

The program is built around the integrity of the graduate work completed up to, but not including, the successful defense of the dissertation. Any A.B.D. applicant must meet the following criteria in order to be accepted into the program and defined as a Ph.D. candidate:

1. Appropriate undergraduate and graduate degrees which allow for the pursuit of doctoral work
2. Completion of all residency requirements for the Ph.D. at a graduate school of religious studies, seminary, or university (verified by transcript)
3. Fulfillment of language requirements, if applicable, in compliance with the degree being pursued

Doctoral Committee

Every student admitted into an academic doctoral program, either the Ph.D. or the Th. D., will be assigned a Doctoral Committee prior to the scheduling of the doctoral defense. The members of the committee are as follows

- Thesis Supervisor
- Two Faculty Readers
- Two Defense Panel members
- Defense Chair

These six individuals are not asked to agree with the observations or conclusions drawn by the doctoral candidate in the thesis, but the committee must finally concur that the thesis is worthy of scholarly recognition based on traditional standards of scholarship, research and presentation.

Graduate Center for Pastoral Logotherapy

(meaning-oriented approach to pastoral care & counseling, inclusive of spirituality, ecumenically applicable)

Description

Though there are numerous training centers around the world for those interested in Viktor Frankl's logotherapy, there is no graduate-level institution focused specifically upon the pastoral character of the theory and practice of logotherapy. The GTF has established the Graduate Center for Pastoral Logotherapy to address this need. The Center offers three degrees in Pastoral Logotherapy with specific training in the theory and practice of logotherapy for ministry professionals working as practitioners in pastoral care and counseling. The Graduate Center for Pastoral Logotherapy of the Graduate Theological Foundation is an accredited Member of the International Association of Logotherapy and Existential Analysis at the Viktor Frankl Institute Vienna.

Undergraduate Programs

The Graduate Theological Foundation's degree-completion program allows students to maintain their professional positions while completing a bachelor's degree in one of three areas: religious education, theology or sacred music. Specialized degree tracks are available for some degree programs to allow focused study in a particular area. A range of study options is also available to help students craft their own educational study plan.

Degree Completion Defined

"Degree completion" through the GTF means that the applicant brings five years of post-high school, professional-level experience in a social service ministry or faith community for which the student is granted three years of academic credit (90 credits covering the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior years). The student then completes the final, or Senior, year through the GTF by taking ten courses (30 credits/240 contact hours) to receive the bachelor's degree. The GTF's bachelor's degree is based on the national standard of 120 credits.

The Professional Baccalaureate

Professional baccalaureate degree programs are designed to identify the parameters, and nurture the components, of a professional field of study and training. Rather than building upon a liberal arts core curriculum, the professional degree specifically focuses upon praxis skills needed to function professionally within the chosen field. Whereas a liberal arts education attempts to foster a broad foundation of general studies, the professional degree concentrates on operational skills which address the practical and theoretical demands of the profession being pursued. Ideally, the student coming into a professional degree program will have already been sufficiently exposed to liberal studies such that full attention may be occupied with the professional range of knowledge needed to meet performance expectations within the marketplace. If the interest is in professional skills development, then the professional degree should be pursued.

The GTF awards 90 credits for five+ years of work that is:

- Post-high school
- Professional-level
- Paid or volunteer

Academic work is due no later than February 1 of the year of intended graduation.

Fees are due no later than March 1 of the year of intended graduation.

NOTE: These dates are not postmark dates, but are the dates by which all academic work and all fees must be received by the GTF.

Application Process for All Undergraduate Degrees

1. Download, print and complete an application form. Only those who have been in ministry for at least five years may apply. (See "Ministry Defined" at the beginning of this Student Handbook or on the website.)

Affiliations

Oxford University

Department for Continuing Education (OUDCE)

Formalized in 1994, the GTF's affiliation with Oxford University allows students at the GTF the opportunity to complete part or all of their graduate studies during the Theology Summer School of the OUDCE hosted at Christ Church College, Oxford, one of the 37 colleges that make up the University of Oxford.

Centro Pro Unione, Rome

For the past two decades, the GTF has enjoyed an affiliation with the Centro Pro Unione in Rome, an ecumenical institution engaged in education. The Centro is also the ecumenical repository of all documents generated by the Vatican and the World Council of Churches. The Rev. Fr. James Puglisis, SA, is Director of the Centro Pro Unione. He is also Minister General of the Franciscan Friars of Atonement and teaches at the Angelicum. At the GTF, he is Cardinal Spellman Professor of Catholic Theology.

P.R.I.M.E.

(Partnering Resources in Ministry Education)

This special type of affiliation allows students to earn their degree from the GTF by completing the majority of required coursework through a P.R.I.M.E. affiliate. Institutions designated as "P.R.I.M.E." provide training programs that can be applied toward specializations in specific graduate degree programs. The following institutions and organizations have been invited to participate in the GTF's P.R.I.M.E. program. They have been selected on the strength of their educational programs and quality of training faculty. To this distinguished roster of P.R.I.M.E. institutions, other institutions and programs are periodically added based on the GTF's ongoing assessment of educational training opportunities relevant to our students.

The attractiveness of the P.R.I.M.E. affiliation is two-fold, students may do all of their residency and degree requirements at any one of the P.R.I.M.E. affiliated institutions. Those institutions have the advantage, by virtue of their affiliation with the GTF, of offering their training for the GTF's degree programs in their own facilities. More information on P.R.I.M.E. programs is available on the GTF website.

Society of Catholic Social Scientists

Steubenville, Ohio

- Master of Theology (M.Th.)

The Society of Catholic Social Scientists (SCSS) is a scholarly and professional organization, faithful to Magisterial teaching, which is dedicated to promoting scholarly efforts and approaches in applied fields that aim to get the Catholic Church's social teaching better known and to reflect on how it can address the challenges and problems of modern culture. It entered into a P.R.I.M.E. relationship with the GTF in 2007 to offer a Master of Theology (M.Th.) degree in Catholic Social Thought, as well as to enable interested students to gain graduate credit for its periodic Catholic Social Thought Short Courses.

The SCSS Master of Theology program in Catholic Social Thought is offered exclusively through either in-person tutorial studies or online, with the choice being left up to the student. Thus, students can study for the degree from anywhere in the world. If the student chooses the tutorial mode, he or she would have to relocate to the geographical area of the scholar-tutor for the weekly meetings. A student studies under one or two scholar-tutors from the SCSS membership, usually in a particular social science or related discipline, who direct from one to four students at a time. All scholar-tutors hold doctorates, or the equivalent, in the discipline in which they teach. The program seeks to provide students with a general background in Catholic social teaching/thought and the opportunity to study in a particular discipline within a Catholic framework as shaped by the tradition of that teaching/thought. Scholar-tutors currently can direct students in the following areas: Economics, Ethics/Social Philosophy, History, Jurisprudence, Moral Theology/Catholic Social Ethics, Political Science, Psychology and Sociology.

The program requires three trimesters of full-time study. The first trimester focuses on the social encyclicals and other major social documents of the Church and major Catholic social thinkers. The second trimester focuses on Catholic approaches to the discipline chosen by the student. Each of the first two trimesters is divided into thirds, with each third stressing a particular topic/theme and functioning as the equivalent of a course. The final trimester focuses on the writing of a thesis of at least 75 pages. Thus, a student can finish the M.Th. in Catholic Social Thought in one calendar year. Part-time enrollment is also possible.

Admission into the SCSS's Master of Theology in Catholic Social Thought requires a bachelor's degree in any discipline, at least 6 undergraduate credits in philosophy (if a student does not have this, he or she can take the prerequisite philosophy courses through the GTF), and evidence that the student is knowledgeable about the basic faith and moral teachings of the Catholic Church. Up to 6 credits from previous graduate study can be applied toward the degree if the SCSS Master of Theology Program Director determines that they are comparable to any parts of the program.

Transfer Credit

Any student wishing to have previously completed academic work evaluated for possible transfer credit or wishing to complete coursework through a venue other than the Graduate Theological Foundation for use as transfer credit toward a degree, must contact the Office of the Registrar for approval. Students may use transfer credit to fulfill a maximum 50% of their Unit of Study requirements for a degree program (not applicable in certain programs/concentrations). Accepted transfer credit has the potential to decrease the total tuition paid by the student. Requests for acceptance of transfer credit are reviewed on a case by case basis. (Transfer credit is not accepted for bachelor's degrees.)

Tuition payment schedule for Professional Doctorates/Master's/ Bachelor's

1/3 of total fees paid within 30 days of acceptance

1/3 of total fees paid within one year of the date of acceptance

Payment Plan Option

Students who are unable to make tuition payments in three installments may request to be placed on a payment plan. The payment plan option allows the student to make small monthly or quarterly tuition payments for the duration of the degree program. There is no interest charged on payment plans. If a student requests a mailed invoice as a reminder to make payment, there is a ten dollar fee per invoice.

Tuition Payment

Students may make payments by check, money order or credit card. Online credit card payments are carried out through a secure payment form on the GTF website.

NOTE: Foreign checks must be made payable in U.S. funds.

Professional Doctoral Programs and the Non-Project Option

Students in professional doctoral programs and all master's programs (except the Master of Theology program and the Sacred Music degree programs) may choose to fulfill the Non-Project Option (NPO) in lieu of a praxis-oriented project. Whether one completes the praxis-oriented project or the NPO, the cost is included in the total program cost as stated. The Non-Project Option is fulfilled by completing a GTF Institute and submitting the required response papers. Information is available on the NPO page of the website. Click on the Academics tab, then on Study Options.

Tuition Reimbursement

Any student choosing to withdraw from a degree program within 90 days of acceptance will receive 80% reimbursement of any portion of tuition paid within those 90 days. After the passage of 90 days, no tuition reimbursement will be given.

Degree Program Transfer

Any student wishing to transfer to a different degree program must submit a written request to the Academic Affairs Committee. The student will be assessed a program transfer fee of $200.00. The student will be subject to the tuition rates, fees, program guidelines and policies of the Student Handbook that is current at the time of transfer. Previously completed coursework will be re-evaluated for applicability to the new degree program.

Academic Work

All coursework is due by February 1 of the intended year of graduation. All papers written for the following courses must be submitted within 90 days of completing the course or no course credit will be awarded.

- Independent Study
- GTF Institutes
- On-Site Tutorials
- E-Tutorials
- Distance Learning Modules
- Oxford Theology Summer School
- Centro Pro Unione Summer Course in Rome

(E-Tutorials: The final E-Tutorial paper must be received within 30 days of completion of the course in order for the student to receive credit.)

Documented Use of Sources

Students are held to a high standard of performance at the GTF in the writing of their papers for course requirements. This high standard places the burden of responsibility and accountability upon the student to demonstrate competency in the literature and a capacity to bring critical analysis to the work in hand. If a student has disregarded protocol with respect to primary sources as relates to acceptable documented citations with relevant references, the evaluating faculty has the discretion of returning the work to the student for reworking. No charge of intentional deception is implied in the returning of such work but the student must accept the decision of the evaluating faculty and in turn must resubmit the reworked document for final approval. Failure on the part of the student to rework the document to the evaluating faculty's satisfaction will result in failure to earn credit for the work in hand. Any student wishing to challenge the decision of the evaluating faculty must submit a letter with a detailed explanation of the student's position to the Academic Affairs Committee. Rulings by the AAC are final.

Transcripts

The Office of the Registrar at the GTF maintains all records. Alumni and current students of the GTF should, when requesting a transcript, identify themselves by name, degree program and year of graduation. All requests for transcripts must be received in writing.

The cost of having a transcript generated by the Registrar's Office is $10.00 per copy. Transcripts are provided in hardcopy by mail only. The GTF does not issue transcripts electronically. No transcript will be issued to third parties without prior written request from the student and payment at the time of request.

Diplomas

Diplomas are issued at our yearly graduation ceremony in May. Attendance at graduation is mandatory for all degree students, with the exception of those in Ph.D. and Th.D. programs, and students residing outside of the United States. Students who are unable to attend our yearly graduation ceremony must send a written request for exemption to the Office of Academic Affairs by March 1 prior to graduation. Students whose requests for exemption are approved will be mailed their diplomas within 4-6 weeks following the ceremony.

Students needing verification of completion of degree requirements prior to receiving the diploma may request an official transcript by following the transcript request procedure on the GTF website.

Counseling Credentials

Individuals must comply with the licensure and/or board certification requirements of the State in which they intend to be engaged in professional counseling.

Accreditation

The Graduate Theological Foundation is an ecumenical and interreligious non-profit educational foundation chartered by the State of Indiana. This charter provides that the GTF may offer programs and grant degrees in areas of ministry. The GTF also engages in the sponsorship of research, publishing of monographs and awarding of grants and fellowships. The Graduate Theological Foundation does not hold accreditation from a Department of Education approved accrediting agency.

All GTF degree programs are designed for advanced learning that is self-improving and motivational in nature for fully credentialed professionals in ministry whose common concern is the development of leadership for congregations and communities.

The Graduate Theological Foundation asserts that the academic integrity of an institution can be measured by the credentials of its faculty, the affiliations it holds, and the academic and professional accomplishments of its students and alumni. Information on each of these areas may be found by visiting the following pages:

- Faculty
- Alumni Employment Record
- Alumni and Faculty Publications
- Alumni Careers
- Affiliations
- GTF affiliations with Oxford University and The Centro Pro Unione in Rome
- Online Thesis Library

The GTF has been recognized by the Department of Veterans Affairs as offering a Doctor of Ministry degree which meets the education requirements for employment as a chaplain in the Dept. for Veterans Affairs.

For additional information on accreditation, you can click on the following link which will take you to the U.S. Department of Education's accreditation statement. A quote from this page regarding the Database of Accredited Programs and Institutions is as follows, "The database does not include a number of postsecondary educational institutions and programs that elect not to seek accreditation but nevertheless may provide a quality postsecondary education. The U.S. Department of Education recommends that the database be used as one source of qualitative information and that additional sources of qualitative information be consulted."

The State of Indiana and Contract Disclaimer

This Student Handbook is for general information and does not constitute a contract between this institution and the student. The application and interpretation of this Student Handbook is governed by the laws of the State of Indiana affecting the relationship between the institution and the student.

Code of Conduct

Any student conducting himself/herself in such a manner as to cast disparagement or embarrassment upon the GTF is subject to disciplinary action by the Academic Affairs Committee which may result in censorship, suspension, or expulsion from this institution's courses, activities and programs.

Disciplinary and Grievance Procedures

In the event that the Academic Affairs Committee of the institution determines that disciplinary action must be taken against any student, notification of the intended action, the reason why, and its consequences are to be put in writing to the student. The student may appeal the AAC's decision by submitting a letter to the AAC responding to the charges with copies of the letter to the President and Provost. After further consideration, the student may be asked to appear for a hearing before the AAC in person to answer to the charges and may, at his/her personal discretion, request that the student's Project Consultant, Thesis Supervisor, or a personally chosen member of the faculty to be present at that hearing.

The final decision with regard to the intended action of the AAC must be made by a unanimous vote of the Academic Affairs Committee, the President, the Provost, and where present, the student's representative (Project Consultant, Thesis Supervisor, or Faculty representative). Students may also file a grievance against the GTF by submitting a letter to the Academic Affairs Committee stating specifically the nature of the grievance. By invitation, the AAC may ask the student to appear before it in an attempt to reach a mutually agreed resolution. Failure to reach a resolution will precipitate a further meeting between the student, the AAC, the President, the Provost (or their representatives), and a student-selected member of the faculty. Failure to reach a resolution at such a meeting will necessitate legal consultation with the student and the institution selecting its own lawyers and initiating action as such legal counsel dictates.
